Funds Industry Data Protection Assessment

“It’s about moving away from seeing the law as a box ticking exercise, and instead to work on a framework that can be used to build a culture of privacy that pervades an entire organisation.”

Elizabeth Denham -UK Information Commissioner

REGULATORY NEED

Protecting personal data has never been more pressing with the continued advancement of data theft techniques. This security challenge has prompted global jurisdictions to implement enhanced regulations which impacts the global funds industry.

“The Data Protection Law, 2017 (the “DPL”) has been enacted and will come into force in January 2019,and has drawn from various EU jurisdictions’ legislation, as well as the GDPR, to conform to the data protection standards set by the EU.”

Cayman Islands Law Society

GOOD GOVERNANCE

Fund Boards must ensure they are ready for the ongoing challenge of data protection. This effort includes but is not limited to an initial gap assessment, policy refinement & a periodic technical assessment of 3rd party data processors.
